Community School for Music & the Arts

Creative energy in the people of Berks/Reading is historic — and flourishing as it has for many years. CSMA was founded in 1956 by Werner Von Trapp of the famous musical family & Peter LaManna. Throughout Reading's many eras of change, CSMA continues to offer affordable and easily accessible music and arts education to adults and children. Our experienced teachers with the best degrees and credentials. CSMA serves all age groups and skill levels through music readiness classes, private and class instruction in voice, ensemble, keyboard, strings, woodwinds, brass, percussion, musical theory and composition, painting, sculpture and ceramics. Acting, theatre arts and TV training. Dance includes ballet, jazz, tap and latin dance age 4 to adult. Scholarships are awarded including instruments. If your community would like CSMA to bring the arts to you, please talk with us.
